00:02:44	Question: Winthrop's strengths and weaknesses? Answer: Weaknesses – no linkage between Winthrop and the Rock Hill community. MK speculates this was because Winthrop did not have a consistent President. When DiGiorgio arrived the vision of Winthrop changed. The programs at Winthrop got better.
----------	---

- 00:04:20 Question: How would you compare “old” Winthrop to the Winthrop of today?
Answer: “More good stuff across the board.” The degree programs became nationally certified. The building program – seen mostly in the Athletic department. DiGiorgio added the school colors to the Coliseum. Remodeling of dorms. Transition to the NCAA – “that’s when the spotlight began to shine on Winthrop University.” Sports grew at Winthrop. Acquisition of the American Legion property. Transition from a College to a University.
- 00:09:20 Question: What were your first impressions of DiGiorgio and how do you view him now? Answer: First met DiGiorgio on the telephone after the Board offered DiGiorgio the job of President. MK says he envied DiGiorgio’s management style. MK comments on DiGiorgio’s personality: organized, engaged, etc.
- 00:11:47 Question: Biggest challenge Winthrop faced? Answer: When the faculty had the vote of no confidence. MK says he was impressed by DiGiorgio’s action and resilience after the vote of no confidence
- 00:13:50 Question: How did the community respond during the vote of no confidence?
Answer: MK speculates on the community reaction. The public was not in the inner circle. Faculty was very public about it. MK refers to a long-term issue: lack of state funding.
- 00:16:40 Question: Who was reducing funding? Answer: The General Assembly. MK talks about the responsibility of the state in terms of buildings.
- 00:18:40 Question: How would you rate DiGiorgio’s Presidency overall? Answer: MK recalls Presidents before DiGiorgio – Lader and Piper. “My benchmark is DiGiorgio.”
